STANDARDS:

Decorum in Miller Chapel is the concern of all who worship there. What uplifts one, generally uplifts all. What offends one, often disturbs all. It has been traditional for students to refrain from bringing coffee or cokes or snacks into the narthex or the pews. Moreover, in Protestant churches it has been appropriate for men to remove their caps or hats when they enter the sanctuary and to put them on again only when they are outside the doors. Let us "be kindly affectioned one to another..." (Rom. 12:10).

PASCHAL VIGIL 1983

"Justice and Peace Now Embrace"

The Paschal Vigil at Princeton Seminary will be celebrated on Saturday, April 2, 1983. The doors of Miller Chapel will be opened at 7:00; the Reproaches will begin at 7:15; the Service of Light will begin at 8:00.

It is customary for members of the congregation to wear white (or light-colored) clothes. If you have an alb, you may wear that!

Everyone is requested to bring some food appropriate for the break-fast. (cold cuts, bread, milk, eggs, cheese, crackers, honey, wine, juice, etc.) and $1.00 to cover other costs of the feast (take wine or bread to the Chapel, other foods to the Campus Center dining hall).

You are invited also to bring a bell to ring when the Resurrection is announced!

Remember that part of the vigil will be outside; dress accordingly!

Parking will not be available on campus; you should use the streets around campus.

If anyone is devout and loves God, come to this radiant triumphant feast!
If anyone is a wise follower, enter into the joy of the Lord, rejoicing!
If any have fasted long, now receive refreshment!
If any have labored from the first hour, today receive your just reward!
If any came at the third hour, keep the feast with thankfulness!
If any arrived at the sixth hour, have no misgivings for you shall not be deprived!
If any delayed to the ninth hour, draw near, fearing nothing!
If any have waited even until the eleventh hour, do not be alarmed at this tardiness.
For the Lord will accept the last even as the first!

DID YOU KNOW?

In the basement of Miller Chapel exists a little-known and seldom-used room. The Music and Worship Resources Room is a library of books, journals, hymnals, file resources, and liturgies which can be used as rich reference material. The Seminary community is urged to take advantage of the many and varied resources available. The key is kept in the Chapel Office. Stop down and look around!

SENIOR CLASS NEWS:

The senior class Stewardship Committee is presently soliciting suggestions for the senior class project. The project will be funded by pledges made by the present class and collected over the next ten-year period. In the recent past senior classes have designated the initial pledges collected for support of the child care center and reserved later pledges for a future project. Often the final decision has been held off until the ten-year reunion of the class, at which time results of the stewardship drive are known and the then current needs may be more accurately assessed. Suggestions can be given to Linda Westerhoff, Steve Hamilton, or any member of the Stewardship Committee, prior to April 7.

NEW EXCHANGE PROGRAM:

As you may know, Princeton Seminary and the University of Tuebingen have agreed to an exchange program beginning in the 1983-84 academic year. Initially the institutions will exchange one student each year.

Students participating will be accepted upon recommendation of their home institution, provided they fulfill the admission requirements of the host institution. Students in any appropriate field of study are eligible for the exchange, on the condition that the host institution offers courses compatible with the student's course of study. In all instances a candidate is required to return to Princeton Seminary for a full year of work upon completion of the studies in Tuebingen.

Dramatized life-situations from the award-winning television series Insight (Paulist Productions) will be presented for critical discussion; students are encouraged to gain insight into themselves in responding to these episodes, while preparing a major paper on some aspect of the re-creative word.
